

I am concerned about LPFM displacing FM translators of national services (specifically K-LOVE). K-LOVE provides a family oriented alternative to typically less family-friendly local broadcasts and brings a quality of service that local efforts would not be able to achieve. Loss of K-LOVE to local LPFM would eliminate the prime source of wholesome family-safe radio in Oklahoma and elsewhere.